Government from time to time, within fifteen days of the receipt of the notice.

(3) Where the prosecution has already been instituted against the accused in the competent Court, he may make an application to the Court to compound the offence against him and the Court, after considering the application, may allow composition of the offence by the compounding officer in accordance with provisions of section 89.

(4) If the accused complies with the requirement of sub-rule (2), the compounding officer shall compound the offence for the amount of money deposited by the accused and-

(a) If the offence is compounded before the prosecution, then no complaint for prosecution shall be instituted against the accused; and

(b) If the offence is compounded after institution of prosecution under sub-rule (3) with the permission of the Court, then, the compounding officer shall treat the case as closed as if no prosecution had been launched and will proceed in accordance with composition under clause (a) and intimate the composition of offence to the competent Court in which the prosecution is pending and after receiving such intimation, the Court shall discharge the accused and close the prosecution.

(5) The compounding officer shall issue a receipt in PART IV of the form against the amount of money deposited by the accused for composition of the offense.

CHAPTER XIII

MISCELLNEOUS

62. Protected Workmen under sub section (4) of Section 90- (1)

Every registered trade union or negotiating council connected with an industrial establishment, to, which the code applies, shall communicate to the employer, before the [31st December] every year, the names and addresses of such office-bearers of the union or representatives of the negotiating council who are employed in that establishment and who, in the opinion of the union or negotiating council, should be recognized as "protected workmen" in the industrial establishment. Any change in the incumbency of any such office-bearer or representative shall be communicated to the employer by the trade union or negotiating council, as the case may be, within fifteen days of such change.

sections 90 (4)

(2) The employer shall recognize such workmen to be [protected workmen for a period of twelve months from the date of such communication] for the purposes of sub-section (4) of the said section 90 and communicate to the registered trade union or negotiating council, in writing, within fifteen days of the receipt of the names and address under sub-rule (1), the list of workmen recognized as protected workmen.

(3) where the total number of names received by the employer under sub-rule (1) exceeds the maximum number of protected workmen, admissible for the industrial establishment, under Section 90, sub-section (4), the employer shall recognize as protected workmen only such maximum number of workmen:

Provided that, where there is more than one registered trade union in the industrial establishment, the maximum number shall be so distributed by the employer among the trade unions that the numbers of recognized "protected workmen" in individual unions bear roughly the same proportion to one another as the membership figures of the unions. The employer shall in that case intimate in writing to the President or the Secretary of the union the number of protected workmen allotted to it:

Provided further that where the number of "protected workmen" allotted to a union under this sub-rule falls short of the number of office bearers of the unions seeking protection, the union shall be entitled to select the office bearers to be recognized as protected workmen. Such selection shall be made by the union and communicated to the employer within five days of the receipt of the employer's letter.

(4) When a dispute arises between an employer and any registered trade union or negotiating council where a particular workman should be recognized as a "protected workman" or not, the dispute shall, be referred to the Conciliation Officer concerned for decision. An appeal against the decision of the Conciliation Officer shall lie to the Labour Commissioner, Punjab, whose decision thereon shall be final.

63. Manner of making complaint by an aggrieved worker under section 91.- (1) Every complaint under section 91 of the Code shall be made electronically and by registered post or speed post in Form –

XVIII and shall be accompanied by as many copies as there are opposite parties mentioned in the complaint.

(2) Every complaint under sub-rule (1) shall be verified by the worker making the complaint or by authorized representative of the worker proved to the satisfaction of the conciliation officer, arbitrator, and the Industrial Tribunal, as the case may be, to be acquainted with the facts of the case.

Provided that the complaint referred in sub-rule (1) and sub-rule (2) made before conciliation officer or arbitrator or Industrial Tribunal shall be disposed within thirty days from the date of its filing.

and 99(2)(zzd)

64. Manner of authorization of worker for representing in any proceeding under sub-section (1) of section 94.- Where the worker is not a member of any registered trade union, then, any member of the executive or other office-bearer of any registered trade union connected with or by any other worker employed in the industry in which the worker is employed may be authorized by such worker to represent him in any proceeding under the Code relating to a dispute in which the worker is a party in Form-X.

sections 94(2)
and 99(2)(zze)

65. Manner of authorization of employer for representing in any proceeding under sub-section (2) of section 94.- Where the employer, is not a member of any association of employers, may authorize in Form-X an officer of any association of employers connected with, or by any other employer engaged in, the industry in which the employer is engaged to represent him in any proceeding under the Code relating to a dispute in which the employer is a party.

sections 99(2)
and 99(2)(zzf)

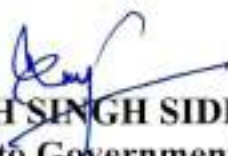

66. Collection of statistics: - The employer shall submit the details of strike, lock-out, lay-off, retrenchment and closure statistics required under these rules electronically in Form and manner from time to time to the State Government as well as to the Office of Director General, Labour Bureau.
